Colorado Episcopal Cursillo

A Cursillo weekend is a three-day short course in Christian living that takes a New Testament look at Christianity as a lifestyle. It is a highly-structured experience designed to strengthen and renew the faith of persons who are already practicing Christians, and through them, to renew and strengthen the faith of their families, their congregations, and the world in which they live. During the weekend, a team of laity and clergy will present the fundamental principles of Christian living through a series of talks and meditations. About a month after the weekend, there is a follow-up meeting (reunion Ultreya) and then a continuing program of small-group community activities (group reunion) in which you are encouraged to participate.

Cursillo is a very rewarding experience for most people, but can at times be physically and/or emotionally demanding. It is not intended to provide counseling or treatment for personal problems or marital difficulties. Those in emotional crisis should resolve their difficulties before attending a Cursillo weekend.

What is required to attend a Cursillo weekend?

- You must be a baptized, active member in good standing of an Episcopal or Evangelical Lutheran congregation.
- You should have a sponsor who has attended Cursillo and who can assist and support you before, during and after the weekend. If you do not yet have a sponsor, assistance can be provided in finding one.
- Your rector must concur with your attendance.
- You must attend for the full weekend—the opening evening of the weekend through the closing day of the weekend early evening. Except for an emergency, you are asked to be of touch for the full three days. If you cannot be out of touch, wait to attend until you are able.
- You must include a $40 nonrefundable application fee (a check made out to Colorado Episcopal Cursillo) with your application when you give it to your sponsor.
- Your sponsor will answer any questions you may have about the weekend or the continuing program of activities that follow. Keep in touch with your sponsor regarding questions and concerns about your application and the weekend plans.

Weekend fees include all meals and lodging from the opening evening of the weekend through the closing of the weekend afternoon. Give your completed application and a check for your $40 portion of the fee to your sponsor, who will also complete a separate application on your behalf and seek approval from your parish rector. Once completed, the sponsor will forward both applications, your check, and the remainder of the fee to the lay leaders of the weekend you wish to attend.
